CASE NO. 9:06-CR-50

FINDINGS OF FACT AND RECOMMENDATION ON GUILTY PLEA
BEFORE THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

The District Court referred this matter to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for administration of a guilty plea and allocution under Rules 11 and 32 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Magistrates have the statutory authority to conduct a felony guilty plea proceeding as an “additional duty” pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(3). United States v. Bolivar-Munoz, 313 F.3d 253, 255 (5th Cir. 2002), cert. denied, 123 S. Ct. 1642 (2003).

On February 13, 2007, this cause came before the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for entry of a guilty plea by the Defendant, Carl Carver, on Count III of the charging Indictment filed in this cause. Count III of the Indictment charges that on or about September 11, 2006, in the Eastern District of Texas, Carl Carver, Defendant herein, having been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, to wit: kidnaping, a felony, in Cause Number 18,609, in the 159th Judicial District Court, Angelina County, Texas, on July 15, 1996, and Aggravated Assault, a felony, in Cause Number 7,988, in the 258th Judicial District Court, Trinity County, Texas, on June 27, 1997, did knowingly and unlawfully possess in and affecting commerce ammunition, to wit: a .38 caliber round, manufactured by Western Cartridge Company, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2).

Defendant, Carl Carver, entered a plea of guilty to Count III of the Indictment into the record at the hearing.

After conducting the proceeding in the form and manner prescribed by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11 the Court finds:

a. That Defendant, after consultation with counsel of record, has knowingly, freely and voluntarily consented to the administration of the guilty plea in this cause by a United States Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Texas subject to a final approval and imposition of sentence by the District Court.

b. That Defendant and the Government have entered into a plea agreement which was disclosed and addressed in open court, entered into the record, and placed under seal.

c. That Defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea, that Defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea, and that the plea of guilty is a knowing, voluntary and freely made plea. Upon addressing the Defendant personally in open court, the Court determines that Defendant Carl Carver's plea is voluntary and did not result from force, threats or promises. See FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(b)(2).

d. That Defendant's knowing, voluntary and freely made plea is supported by an independent factual basis establishing each of the essential elements of the offense and Defendant realizes that his conduct falls within the definition of the crimes charged under 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2).

STATEMENT OF REASONS

As factual support for Defendant's guilty plea, the government presented the following evidence, which was admitted into the record at the plea hearing. See Factual Resume. If the case proceeded to trial, the Government and Defendant agreed that the Government would prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, each and every essential element of the charging offenses charged in Count III of the Indictment. The Government would further establish that the Defendant is one and the same person named in the Indictment and that the events described therein occurred in the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere.

Specifically, in support, the Government would establish, through sworn testimony and evidence, including expert witnesses and admissible exhibits, the following facts, as stated in the Factual Resume:

That the Defendant knowingly and unlawfully possessed a firearm in and affecting commerce after he had been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year. The Government would also prove that on September 11, 2006, Corporal David Casper of the Lufkin Police Department assisted the Angelina County Sheriff's Department in a pursuit of a vehicle that had been reported stolen. The pursuit occurred in Lufkin, Texas, which is within the Eastern District of Texas. Officers would testify that the driver of the vehicle was identified as the Defendant. After the officers arrested Defendant, they conducted a search upon him in the Angelina County Jail, in Lufkin, Texas., where they recovered a .38 caliber round, manufactured by Western Cartridge Company, in his pants pocket.

The Government would also offer into evidence documentation establishing that the Defendant has been convicted of the following felonies:

- 1) Kidnaping, a felony, in Cause Number 18,609, in the 159th Judicial District Court, Angelina County, Texas, on July 15, 1996; and
- 2) Aggravated assault, a felony, in Cause Number 7,988, in the 258th Judicial District Court, Trinity County, Texas, on June 27, 1997.

Special Agent John Russell Morrison with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives would testify on behalf of the Government. He would state that he is an expert in the area of interstate commerce as it relates to the manufacturing of firearms and ammunition. He determined that the ammunition recovered on September 11, 2006, as described herein, was not manufactured in Texas and, therefore, traveled in interstate commerce.

Defendant, Carl Carver, agreed with the above-stated facts and signed the Factual Resume. Counsel for Defendant and the Government attested to Defendant's competency and capability to enter an informed plea of guilty. The Defendant agreed with the evidence presented by the Government and personally testified that he was entering his guilty plea knowingly, freely and voluntarily.

RECOMMENDED DISPOSITION

IT IS THEREFORE the recommendation of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge that the District Court accept the Guilty Plea of Defendant which the undersigned determines to be supported by an independent factual basis establishing each of the essential elements of the offenses charged in Count III of the charging Indictment on file in this criminal proceeding. The Court also recommends that the District Court conditionally accept the plea agreement.¹ Accordingly, it is further recommended that, Defendant, Carl Carver, be finally adjudged as guilty of the charged offenses under Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2).

Defendant is ordered to report to the United States Probation Department for the preparation of a presentence report. At the plea hearing, the Court admonished the Defendant that the District Court may reject his plea and that the District Court can decline to sentence Defendant in accordance with the plea agreement, the federal sentencing guidelines and/or the presentence report because the sentencing guidelines are advisory in nature. The District Court

(A) To the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the court may accept the agreement, reject it, or defer a decision until the court has reviewed the presentence report.

(B) To the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(B), the court must advise the defendant that the defendant has no right to withdraw the plea if the court does not follow the recommendation or request.

(4) Accepting a Plea Agreement. If the court accepts the plea agreement, it must inform the defendant that to the extent the plea agreement is of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the agreed disposition will be included in the judgment.

(5) Rejecting a Plea Agreement. If the court rejects a plea agreement containing provisions of the type specified in Rule 11(c)(1)(A) or (C), the court must do the following on the record and in open court (or, for good cause, in camera):

(A) inform the parties that the court rejects the plea agreement;

(B) advise the defendant personally that the court is not required to follow the plea agreement and give the defendant an opportunity to withdraw the plea; and may defer its decision to accept or reject the plea agreement until there has been an opportunity to consider the presentence report. See FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(c)(3). If the Court rejects the plea agreement, the Court will advise Defendant in open court that it is not bound by the plea agreement and Defendant may have the opportunity to withdraw his guilty plea, dependent upon the type of the plea agreement. See FED. R. CRIM. P. 11(c)(3)(B). If the plea agreement is rejected and Defendant still persists in the guilty plea, the disposition of the case may be less favorable to Defendant than that contemplated by the plea agreement. Defendant has the right to allocute before the District Court before imposition of sentence.

(C) advise the defendant personally that if the plea is not withdrawn, the court may dispose of the case less favorably toward the defendant than the plea agreement contemplated.” FED. CRIM. P. 11(c)(3)-(5).

OBJECTIONS

Within ten (10) days after receipt of this report, any party may serve and file written objections to the report and recommendation of the Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). Failure to file written objections to the proposed findings of facts, conclusions of law and recommendations contained within this report within ten (10) days after service shall bar an aggrieved party from de novo review by the District Judge of the proposed findings, conclusions and recommendations, and from appellate review of factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the District Court except on grounds of plain error. Douglass v. United Serv. Auto. Ass'n., 79 F.3d 1415 (5th Cir. 1996) (en banc); 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). The constitutional safeguards afforded by Congress and the courts require that, when a party takes advantage of his right to object to a magistrate's findings or recommendation, a district judge must exercise its nondelegable authority by considering the actual evidence and not merely by reviewing and blindly adopting the magistrate's report and recommendation. See Hernandez v.

Estelle, 711 F.2d 619, 620 (5th Cir. 1983); United States v. Elsoffer, 644 F.2d 357, 359 (5th Cir. 1981) (per curiam).
